ABOUT THE SHOW

A charming pianist's world unravels when love & tragedy pull him into the violent underworld of the Montreal mob, which he keeps secret from his hilariously overbearing Greek parents. GREEK VIPER blends the heart of My Big Fat Greek Wedding with the grit of A Bronx Tale in a darkly funny and tragic solo show. 1 actor. 17 characters. 70 minutes.

CREATIVE TEAM BIOS

Written By & Starring ELIAS SCOUFARAS

Elias Scoufaras is an award-winning actor, writer, and filmmaker originally from Montreal. He studied acting at the Lee Strasberg Theatre & Film Institute in New York and has worked in Montreal, Toronto, and Los Angeles. Now based in Los Angeles, Elias is pursuing his career in stage and screen. He received the "Vanguard Best Actor Award" at the 2024 Idyllwild International Festival of Cinema for his film RICH AND HAPPY and recently featured on "General Hospital". Known for his emotionally driven performances and quick wit, Elias brings humor and heart to every role. Greek Viper is his most personal project to date - A one-man tour de force rooted in Hellenic culture, identity, and cathartic storytelling.

Directed By ALEC NORRIS

Alec Norris is a dynamic Los Angeles-based director known for his innovative work in both theater and film. With a focus on character-driven narratives and emotional realism, Alec has developed a reputation for coaxing deeply human performances from his collaborators. He brings a sharp eye and deft hand to Greek Viper, helping shape its solo format into an experience that's visceral, funny, and emotionally resonant.

Produced By Michael Donovan

Michael Donovan is an acclaimed producer and award-winning casting director with 1,000 theatre productions to his name. He is the recipient of 10 Artios Awards, presented by the Casting Society of America for Outstanding Achievement in Casting. His decades-long career has helped launch countless performers and projects across television, film, and theater. As a longtime supporter of bold, emerging voices in the arts, Michael brings invaluable insight and expertise to Greek Viper, helping shepherd the production from the page to the stage.
